AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: 110 MONTHS.

It is the judgment of the court that defendant is sentenced on Count One of the First Superseding Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a total term of 110 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years, under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs. Defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.

USA vs. STEPHANIE MICHELLE CRUZDocket No.: ED CR 23-00180-(A)-FMO-2

5. Defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
6. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
7. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation & Pretrial Services Office.
8. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample.
9. Defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, or other areas under defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. Defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

It is ordered that defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. All fines are waived as the court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay any fine.

Defendant shall surrender to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 noon, on August 5, 2025. In the absence of such designation, defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at First Street U.S. Courthouse, 350 W. First Street, Suite 3001, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

The court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons: (1) allow defendant to participate in the residential drug abuse program (RDAP); (2) conduct a mental health evaluation of defendant, and provide all necessary treatment; and (3) designate defendant to a Federal Correctional Institution within Southern California.

Defendant's bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

Upon motion of the government, the underlying Indictment is hereby dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
